With only twenty out of 1,500 precincts missing, the official returns from the August primary show that John Garland Pollard was nominated for Attorney-General by a majority of 1,116 over Judge Samuel W. Williams, the incumbent, according to the figures given out last night by Secretary J. N. Brenaman, of the State Democratic Committee. Lieutenant-Governor Ellyson defeated Lewis H. Machen by a majority of 9,324, while George W. Koiner was again nominated for Commissioner of Agriculture and Immigration by a majority of 14,522 over John Thompson Brown.

The vote in the twenty unreported precincts is variously estimated at from 100 to 300. In any case, when reported, it can make no appreciable difference in the results as announced above. The figures make known the primary winners exactly four weeks and one day after the day of the election.

The State Democratic Committee has been called by Acting Chairman Echols to meet on the night of September 11, at 8 o'clock, in Murphy's Hotel. The committee will review the tabulated figures arranged by the secretary and formally announce the party nominees in the general election to be held next November. Secretary Brenaman expects to have the twenty missing precincts either reported or accounted for by the time the committee convenes.

FATHER VISITS CHARLTON.

Boy Throws Himself Into the Arms of His Parent and Weeps Bitterly.

Como, Italy, Sept. 3.—Judge Paul Charlton, father of Porter Charlton, the young self-confessed wife murderer, visited his son in prison yesterday and the two spent two hours together.

This was the first time they had met since Charlton was in jail in Jersey City, N. J. The young prisoner momentarily lost control of himself when his father entered the cell.

Crying out: "Father, father, how glad I am to see you." Porter threw himself into his father's arms and wept unrestrainedly.

Young Charlton's mother is dead.

Judge Charlton talked earnestly with his son, advising him how to act and what to say in court.

Later the judge visited Signor Mellini, one of Charlton's lawyers. Together they went over the evidence in the case, strengthening where they could, points of the defense.

Judge Charlton has become skilled in the use of Italian language so that he could aid his son.

MARYLAND VISITORS.

Mr. Charles N. Zeitler, and little son James, of Brookville, Md., spent Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of his friend, Mr. Herman Priebe, of Riverside. Mr. Zeitler is a prominent stock raiser and trucker of the Brookville neighborhood.

Oyster season now open at Rammel Cafe.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

William J. Fisher, who according to his own statements stabbed to death William L. Altdorfer Friday night in the latter's home at Chevy Chase, Md., was yesterday released from the Rockville jail, where he has been confined since the killing, and placed under $3,000 bond by Circuit Court Judge Edward C. Peter, to await the action of the grand jury which meets in November.

Absolute divorce and $5,000 a year alimony from Eldridge E. Jordan, banker and clubman, was grnated to Mrs. Martha Tyson Manly Jordan by Justice Wright yesterday, in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia. No defense was offered by Mr. Jordan, though in his answer to Mrs. Jordan's bill he demanded strict proof of her allegations. The papers in the case are still withheld from the public under the secrecy of the seal of the court. The decree states that the divorce is granted on the finding from the evidence that Mr. Jordan was guilty of improper conduct. The specific act of misconduct is alleged to have been committed, the decree says, on June 26 last in a house on St. James street, Baltimore. That was considered as the nearest place of alleged wrongdoing. The decree makes no mention of the alleged wrongdoing acts in New York during the winter, as specified in Mrs. Jordan's bill.

The headless trunks of two Italian Alpine climbers were found Monday night near Simplon Pass on the Swiss-Italian frontier. The police, assisted by a strong force of guides, are searching the neighborhood for the missing heads. As there was no motive for robbery, it is believed the two men were victims of the Black Hand.

Bloodhounds were used yesterday in an effort to solve the theft of $26,000 in cash, taken from the bedroom of Henry Woodford, a bachelor, and one of the wealthiest men of Waverly, Iowa, early Sunday morning. Bonds to the amount of $18,000 were found just inside the window of Woodford's home, but no trace of the cash has been discovered.

Industrial Workers of the World were read out of the Socialist party by George H. Wrenn, candidate for governor of the state, at a Socialist rally in West Springfield, Mass., yesterday. "I would rather have a Democrat or a Republican in the party," Mr. Wrenn told his hearers, "than a member of the Industrial Workers of the World. They are a group of misguided men, who are working greater harm to the Socialist party than all its open enemies without. "The Socialist is a political party and you cannot run a political party unless it is kept absolutely independent of the industrial field."

After many wordy battles between ministers and laymen, the special meeting of the Maryland Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, in Baltimore, called for the purpose of acting on the proposed union of the Methodist Protestant and the United Brethren Churches, adjourned yesterday after passing a resolution condemning in strenuous terms the union on the basis proposed.

James Pepple, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Pepple, at Cashtown, Pa., shot off the arm of Frank Beaver, an 8-year-old boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Beaver. It was the same old story, "the gun wasn't loaded," and the boys took it down and were playing with it. The lad picked up the gun and pointed it at young Beaver and pulled the trigger. The shell exploded, and because of the close range, his arm was nearly blown from his body. It had to be amputated.

The body of a man with knifewounds on his body was found under the municipal wharf at Kansas City, Mo., yesterday, and papers found in his pockets led the police to believe that Paul H. Thompson, deputy fire commissioner of Nebraska, had been slain and thrown into the river. A coat and a Panama hat, both of them bloody and cut as if with a knife, were found floating under the wharf. In the coat was found an undated letter addressed to Mrs. P. H. Thompson, Omaha, and a letter from John H. Moorehead, governor of Nebraska. Mr. Thompson registered at a hotel Sunday from Grand Island, Neb. He attended a theater that night, but was not seen about the hotel yesterday.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 3.—Receiving a cordial welcome from Exalted Ruler Eugene Brauer, Mayor Geo. Ainslie and Congressman A. J. Montague, 1,200 Elks assembled in the home of Richmond Lodge No. 45, B. P. O. E., yesterday for the seventh annual state convention of the association. All the nineteen lodges of the State were represented by delegates with credentials, but most of the visitors were unassigned. They came, however, for the hospitality which they knew Richmond and Lodge No. 45 would extend them.

The delegates from Norfolk, Hampton, Alexandria and Newport News arrived Monday night, and others drifting in by train yesterday morning. All were met at the railway stations and were taken to the Richmond home, Eleventh and Marshall streets, where they were registered by T. A. R. Burke. The entertainment began without delay,and ample provision was made for those who were hungered and athirst.

The Richmond Elks outdid themselves in extending welcome hands, and in seeing that everyone was enjoying himself. After a formal greeting and the business session, a buffet luncheon was served in the dance hall, and in the afternoon there was an automobile sight-seeing trip through the city from Byrd Park to Chimborazo, through quiet residential districts and busy thoroughfares of the city.

Exalted Ruler Eugene Brauer had charge of the reception, and acted as chairman of the committee.

After a few words he introduced Mayor Ainslie, who, in his usual graceful style, welcomed the Elks to Richmond, and handed over to them the keys of the city. Congressman Montague, who delivered the principal address of welcome, was then introduced.

Exalted Ruler Brauer then turned the gavel over to President Johnson, and the business session, which was executive, was had. President Johnson made the announcement concerning the building of a new national home at Bedford City, saying that the inmates would be removed to some other place while the bulidings were in course of construction. He then read the annual report, showing that the order was in better condition than ever before, that the finances were on a sound business basis, and that, after all expenditures there was left a comfortable balance. He strongly recommended the establishment of women auxiliary lodges, an idea which had been taken up in the West and found to be highly beneficial in touching the general order. A committee will be appointed later to act upon this suggestion. Mr. Johnson advocated it with much earnestness, and said that he hoped action would be favorable to the plan.

The business session will be continued today, when officers for the State Association will be elected. The present officers are as follows: B. S. Johnson, Roanoke, President; T. C. Conlon, Charlottesville, first vice-president; W. T. Baugh, Petersburg, second vice-president; Michael Ward, Newport News, third vice-president; W. Clifford Godsey, Petersburg, secretary; John W. Bliley, Norfolk, treasurer; Rev. Edgar Carpenter, Alexandria, chaplain; T. F. Rogers, Jr., Norfolk, sergeant-at-arms.

It was announced in the evening that, as there were so many women in the party, a special arrangement had been made to entertain them this afternoon. Seats will be reserved for them in the Lyric Theatre, Ninth and Broad streets and they are requested to assemble and register at the home at 2 o'clock this afternoon, when a committee will take them in charge, and tickets to the matinee will be issued to them.

Mr. James W. Bales, exalted ruler of Alexandria Lodge, No. 578, Elks is here to see what sort of a time the Elks of Richmond can show the visitors from other sections of the State. He is also here because he wants to meet his friends from all over the State and to have a word in the proceedings of the State convention.

"You see over in Alexandria we have some Elks, three hundred of them, and we have some lodge. It is made up of splendid men. They enter into the spirit and principles of the order and try to live up to its teachings. We have a fine meeting place, an elegant home and the doors swing inward when visiting Elks come to town and when our friends of the press call to see us. Always glad to have them drop in and pay us a visit."

Mr. Robert S. Barrett, president of the Alexandria Gazette Corporation, is also in the city, and when it comes to boosting a town he is easily the man on whom the spotlight rests.

MOTHER FINDS CHILD.

Learns That Nurse Exchanged Her Baby Four Years Ago.

Bridgeton, N. J., Sept. 3. — Mrs. Beatrice Gaddis of this city, has just discovered alive her little child whom she thought she had buried about four years ago. The story reads like fiction.

A little more than four years ago, Mrs. Gaddis, then a recent widow, her husband having been killed in the coal mines, gave birth to a daughter in a hospital in Maunch Chunk, Pa. The infant was very feeble and remained so, and was retained at the hospital when Mrs. Gaddis left. At the same time another woman gave birth to a child there. The latter died while the mother was delirious.

The nurse knowing the condition of both women, the one a poor widow, with other children, the other a woman of means with no other child, changed the babies and sent word to Mrs. Gaddis that her child had died. Mrs. Gaddis had it buried without learning of the substitution which had been practiced.

A few days ago, Mrs. Gaddis, now residing here, received a telegram requesting her to come to Mauch Chunk at once. She went, and there she learned the amazing truth that her little daughter of four years is still living. The nurse was on her death bed and had sent for both mothers, to whom she told the story of her act exchanging the babies, imploring forgiveness. She was forgiven and died in peace.

Then the woman who thought she was the mother of the child went on her knees to the real mother, imploring her to give up the child to which she had become so deeply attached. Mrs. Gaddis finally consented, knowing the child was in an excellent home, and adoption and relinquishment papers were executed before the court. Mrs. Gaddis has four other children to maintain.

Thief Caught in a Trunk.

The home of Chauncey F. Black, a brother of Jere S. Black, of York, Pa., who is entertaining Secretary of State William J. Bryan, was burglarized last night. The thief was caught hiding in a trunk in the attic of the resdence he robbed. The burglar was Chester E. Glatfelter, 20 years old. He was seen to enter the house by neighbors and Detective White was notified. It was found that a safe had been blown open and articles of jewelry taken. After an hour's search the intruder was found by Detectives White and Keech doubled up in a trunk.

CHARGES AGAINST NAVY SECRETARY

Mr. Daniels, it is Alleged, is Exceeding His Authority.

DEFENDS HIS ACTION.

Said to be Giving Standing to Men Who Lost in Aptitude and General Efficiency.

Washington, Sept. 3.—Charges that Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, "flunked" four candidates for commissions in the marine corps after they had been favorably reported by the examining board, in order that commissions could be given to three other young men who had failed to pass the examination prescribed by the bord, have been filed with Senate senate committee on naval affairs.

Secretary Daniels today admitted that he had rejected the recommendations of the board as regards the four young men whom he had turnthe board,have been filed with the ers whom the board had turned down. He defended his action on the ground that the board, in his judgment, had not acted fairly in computing the marks.

The committee has instituted a quiet but most thorough investigation of the case, which has created a furore among marine corps officers in Washington.

The four young men "flunked" by the Secretary of the Navy after they had passed the prescribed examination and recommended for commissions as second lieutenants are A. B. Kingston, of Buffalo, N. Y.; L. H. Miller, Lexington, Mo.; Samuel L. Howard, Washington, D. C.; and Ethelbert Talbot, second, Bethelhem, Pa.

Those whom the secretary is said to have put in their places for commissions are L. M. Bourne, and A. H. Tournage, both of North Carolina, and Louis E. Fagan, of Philadelphia.

The last three who were passed by the Secretary of the Navy are "bilges" for the Naval Academy at Academy—that is, they were dropped from their classes or resigned before completing the course. Bourne was a member of the class of 1915 when he left the acadamy, and if the Senate should act favorably on his commission he would get into the marine corps and be a second lieutenant two years before his former classmates had completed their course.

The failure of the three "bilges" to pass the marine corps examination was due to their lack of "aptitude and probable efficiency" on which the examining board turned them down.

ATTACKED OFFICER.

And Roanoke Horse Trader is Felled With Butt of Revolver.

Galax, Va., Sept. 3.—Frank Austin, traveling horse trader from Roanoke, made an assault on Policeman Higgins on Main street near the bridge Monday afternoon with the butt of a loaded buggy whip, and Higgins, in response, smote Austin on the head with a heavy revolver, cutting an ugly gash, and felling him for a time senseless on the ground. Austin's wife had made complaint to Policeman Higgins and he was accompanying her to the place near the high school where she and her husband were camping when they met Austin, who was riding. He was drunk and only a few words passed till he struck Higgins on the head twice, breaking the loaded whip. Higgins caught him in the collar and fired a wild shot to intimidate him but when he continued to resist officer he dealt him a heavy blow with his revolver, which produced the desired result.

Austin was too drunk for a hearing but gave bond for four hundred dollars for his appearance tomorrow morning.

CAPTURES NEGRO MURDERER.

Alleged to Have Killed Three Persons Two of Them Women.

St. Michaels, Md., Sept. 3.—Nicholas Smallwood, colored, who shot Thomas Coursey, colored, to death, while he sat on the doorstep of his home Monday, and afterward made his escape, was captured at Broad Creek Neck yesterday afternoon by a posse headed by Deputy Sheriff James H. Gannon and Constable Alexander C. Mortimer. Smallwood offered no resistance. When he was brought to this town he was nervous when he saw the crowd of 500 white people and negroes who had assembled to see him. After he saw no violence was intended he gained his composure asked for food and writing material. He wrote a letter to one of his sons in Baltimore, and then was taken to the Easton jail, where he will be held for the November term of court.

This is said to be the third murder that the negro has committed, his two other victims being women. One of his sons is serving a life sentence for murder while another is in prison for another offense. There has been intense excitement here throughout the day,and, while there has bee nno open threats of violence, there has been a strong undercurrent of feeling against the negro, and it is believed that he would have fared badly from members of his race had his capture been made after dark.

A number of members of the posse who captured him were members of his own race.. His badge, which indicated his membership in the lodge of Knights of Pythias was taken from him by an officer of the lodge before he was carried to jail.

ACCUSED DISMISSED.

Serious Charge Brought by Girl Utterly Fails.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 3.—Charges of improper conduct brought by Miss Florence Williams against R. E. Dalton, were utterly and absolutely disproved in the Southside Police Court yesterday morning.

The young woman recently swore out a warrant, causing Dalton's arrest for an alleged attack upon her in a locked room of Dalton's grocery store at Fifth and Hull streets, South Richmond.

In court yesterday morning she was unable to prove any of her allegations while Dalton established an excellent reputation. Evidence was developed, which the plaintiff was unable to overthrow, very seriously reflecting upon her conduct. She admitted on the stand when cross-examined by Hiram Smith, counsel for Dalton, that she was a patient in the maternity ward of the City Home some time ago.

At the conclusion of the hearing the warrant against Mr. Dalton was dismissed, it having been shown to the satisfaction of every one that he was guilty of neither an improper act nor intent.

While Miss Williams was on the stand it developed that she had been a visitor to the office of the defendant's counsel while the hearing was pending, in an effort to have the warrant withdrawn. The girl was told that such proceeding came under the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth's attorney.

Though Miss Williams charged that she was kept a prisoner in the room for an hour, six witnesses, who were in the store at the time of the alleged occurrence, testified that Mr. Dalton and Miss Williams were not in the room over twenty minutes. Each of the witnesses also declared that at no time during the conversation was the door of the room closed.

INCENSED AT LAST ACCIDENT

WOODEN CARS TO GO.

Vice-President Arraigns Road—J. P. Morgan, When Questioned, Did Not Want to be Annoyed.

Washington, Sept. 3.—Ruthless slaying of men and women as victims of a car construction of a past age must cease. This mandate today is the stand of the Interstate Commerce Commission and a group of legislators, who are thoroughly incensed over the twenty-seven killed and thirty injured in the New Haven road wreck of yesterday.

Wooden cars are directly responsible for the terrible death roll on the New Haven Railroad in its long series of wrecks within the last two years.

This grim fact came out today from the interstate Commerce Commission. There in cold type are the figures of hundreds killed and injured. And the wooden car is the reason for the enormous death list.

Searching investigation of all the wrecks on the New Haven death line, in New England, has revealed beyond a doubt the fact that the stel car—a strong safety factor—has been absent in all of them.

The sweeping death totals were swelled in each case solely because there were wooden cars in these wrecks.

With Vice President Marshall scorchingly arraigning the New Haven, with the commission extending its probe to the Pullman Company, and its responsibility, with Chairman Adamson of the House Interstate Commerce Commission determined to put a stop to this kind of killing, with Congressman Talcott favoring the abolition of wooden equipment, and with a resolution before the House Rules Committee from Congressman Britton, an Illinois Republican seeking an inquiry right down to fundamentals—the legislative and Administrative machinery of the Government is today turning toward a step which will kill the wooden car for all time.

Stung to action by the Wallingford wreck disaster, Congressman Talcott of New York, stated today that he would immediately ask the House to pass, as angent emergency measure, his bill to force railroads to use nothing but steel cars for passenger traffic.

Question sent to J. P. Morgan by a reporter at his country home near Glen Cove, L. I.

"What action will be taken by the directors of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company to prevent such disasters as occurred today?"

Mr. Morgan's answer was conveyed by a butler, who said:

"Mr. Morgan says he cannot see you. He says he can do nothing about it and does not care to be annoyed."

WOULD BRIDGE POTOMAC

House Commerce Committee Considering $4,000,000 Viaduct

Plans for a $4,000,000 bridge that would link the capital with Virginia, it is announced are being considered by the House Commerce Committee.

The difficulty facing the committee at present is said to be the selection of the site for the Virginia terminus of the structure. It is proposed to make the bridge a structure that will stand for centuries and will admit of the passage of such shipping as uses the upper Potomac river.

Under the tentative plans the bridge would have 80 feet of clearance from the river's surface, thus doing away with the necessity of draws. The plans are being worked out by a subcommittee and a report is expected in the immediate future.

VESSEL WRECKED.

Two Members of Schooner Richard Hartley Drowned.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 3.—With two of their shipmates drowned, their vessel a total wreck, five members of the crew of the three-masted schooner Richard F. C. Hartley are occupying the beds of the life savers of the Chicamocomico station tonight. The vessel, bound to New York from Charleston with a cargo of salt, struck the beach thirty miles south of Bodies Island this afternoon. The vessel had been battling with a high northeast storm all day and was having a hard time to keep off the beach.

Lifesavers made several attempts to launch lifeboats, but were driven back by high seas. They finally managed to launch a boat and went to the rescue of the shipwrecked men. When they reached the vessel two men had disappeared. Captain Sprague and four other men were clinging to the riggings. They were brought ashore. The Hartley was built in 1888 in Bath, Me. She was of 898 tons net.

STRIKE ORDER.

Situation Practically the Same as on Saturday.

Newport News, Va., Sept. 3.—Though it was expected Saturday night, when the result of the strike vote polled by the clerks of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, was announced, that an order declaring the members of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks on strike and causing a walkout of about 1,500 men would be issued Sunday or Monday, up to a late hour last night no such order had gone out and the situation remained the same that it was when the local clerks left work on Tuesday.

It is reported from Richmond that since the result of the vote in which ninety per cent of the clerks favored a general walkout, other returns have been received. It was said that developments were looked for in Richmond, but the nature of the developments was not given out.

FINED SUM OF $300.

Slemp's Private Secretary Pleads Guilty to Violation of Election Laws.

Lebanon, Va., Sept. 3.—The culmination of the recent investigation here into election frauds by the Republicans came yesterday morning, when A. P. Crockett, private secretary of Congressman Bascom Slemp, appeared in court to answer to ten indictments for violating the election laws by using money illegally to purchase votes in the last race of Congressman Slemp against Rufus A. Ayers. He pleaded guilty to the charges.

In spite of the tacit agreement made between both parties in that election that no money be used, it was clearly proven in the grand jury investigation in this county that Mr. Crockett had come into this section a few weeks before the election and distributed something between $900 and $1,200 for the Republican campaign. Mr. Crockett stated to the court this morning that he did not know that he was violating the law. Sentence was passed fining Mr. Crockett the sum of $300 on three of costs of the others against him. Mr. Crockett was defended by S. C. Burns, of the local bar, and Judge Strother, of Welch, W. Va.

SLAUGHTER ON RAILROADS.

Another frightful accident on the New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R., following asuccession of such horrors on the same road, has been one of the chief themes of conversation among newspaper readers during the past twenty-four hours. Over twenty persons were killed outright and about fifty injured.

The main facts in connection with this latest horror were given in yesterday's Gazette.

The accident occurred six miles north of New Haven shortly before seven o'clock yesterday morning.

The first section of the White Mountain Express, bound for New York, speeding along at probably 40 miles an hour in a thick fog, rushed by a danger signal, it is said, and crashed into the rear of the second section of the Bar Harbor Express, standing 100 feet beyond the signal block.

The White Mountain engine cleaved through the two rear Pullman cars, both of wood, and tossing their wreckage and threescore of mangled human beings, some alive, some dead, on either side of the track.

The third car, also of wood, and occupied by 40 boys on their way from a summer camp in Monmouth, Me., was lifted into the air and almost completely off the track. The car fell on its side, crumpled up, crushed two of the boys to death, and injured several others.

Among the killed was William Altschul, a son of Benjamin Altschul, a department store proprietor of Norfolk, Va. He was 14 years old, and his two brothers, Sylvan and Herbert, aged 11 and 8, respectively, were returning from Camp Cobbosses, Monmouth, Me., where they spent two months. They were on their way to New York to meet their father, who had arranged to return to Norfolk last night with his sons.

Miss Margaret Armstrong, of Washington, was also killed.

While this horror has put crape upon many doorknobs in our own country, other places are mourning similar catastrophes Fifteen persons are believed to have been killed and 30 injured in a collision of two sections of the famous London-Scotland Express early yesterday on the Midland railway, near Hawes Junction.

About the same time sixteen people had their lives snuffed out in Salonica by a railroad accident.

LETTER FROM ATLANTIC CITY.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Whether owing to the numerous attractions, Atlantic City holds out for all who seek its hospitable portals during the summer vacation, or whether what may be called utter laziness, for the time being, takes possession of otherwise busy people, it is certain that it is most difficult to compose the mind and spur the pen for the simple performance of letter writing. Hence your correspondent's delay in narrating some of his impressions of this unique and most interesting city by the sea for another summer.

Its hold upon his heart is as strong as ever, he returns to it with delight and leaves it with regret as each season comes and goes. There is the same old ocean in its resistless summer glory, and the same wonderful boardwalk now stretching from the Inlet along the Atlantic City ocean front, down through Chelsea and Vesttnor to Margate, and it will soon reach to Longport, thus covering in due time the whole sea front of Absecon Islands. Over the Atlantic City portion of this walk multitudes whose one purpose is pleasure and recreation pass and repass from early morn until late at night, and it may be said that every hour in the twenty-four during the height of the season records the sound of human footsteps. Beside the steady march of the pleasure seeking pedestrians is the dignified procession of the rolling chairs, each containing two or three happy occupants, moving leisurely up and down the boardwalk with the attendant, either white or colored, pushing it from behind. This is undoubtedly the approved de luxe method of enjoying the pleasures of the boardwalk, and is patronized by all sorts and conditions of men, found on the stretch between the piers, or in that from the "Million Dollar Pier" to Chelsea, which takes in the part where the day excursionists land from the trains. The piers, as all frequenters of Atlantic City know, form the great public pleasure resorts from Steel Pier, where Vesalla sways the baton for his renowned Italian Band, to the Steeplechase, where mirth and merriment exist in every form to split the children's sides with laughter. There are two other amusement piers, Young's old, and Young's new, called the Million Dollar Pier where numerous attractions are found to satisfy every taste Heinz with his '57 varieties' has a pier to exhibit these, which is very attractive for its position, and for the number of its Chinese, Japanese, and other curios, including a collection of five paintings which are well worth a visit. It has the additional attraction of being free of admission charges, so that whoever desires can go on it, and take a seat commanding the magnificient expanse of ocean, which extends from it eastward and southward. The view on one side will soon be cut off by the fine new Garden Pier which is in process of erection between Heinz Pier and the Steel Pier. This now contains a fine court entered at once from the Boardwalk with a beautiful garden in the centre, flanked on both sides by splendid shops, which will be opened shortly under a rental, as we were told, of from ten to twelve thousand dollars each per annum. Beyond this will be a large and modern theatre which is approaching completion. The pier will extend a long distance into the sea and on the farther end, it is said a fine hotel will be built which will catch all the pure breezes of the ocean Everything goes to show that Atlantic City is sure of her future, and the large number of summer visitors is a living witness to this. On the record Sundays of August—300,000 to 350,000 visitors were in the city. Every hotel was filled to its utmost capacity, the boarding houses were overflowing and private houses had to accommodate some of the belated wanderers for the nights of the week-ends. One hundred thousand bathers were in the ocean each of these August Sundays.

Not only are the visitors to hotels and boarding houses found in great numbers. The cottagers who make their summer homes on the island are rapidly increasing. During the years we have been coming to this popular resort we have noticed the rapid building up of the towns of Chelsea and Ventor, and the present development of Margate and Longport, all following in due order from the city along the ocean front and Atlantic Avenue. Some of these cottages represent an investment of thousands of dollars. A few years ago the trolley route to Longport as it passed out of Atlantic City gave an unobstructed view of the ocean and passed through the ancient sand dunes cast up by the ocean storms. Now these have all been levelled except a short stretch near Longport, and many elegant cottages shut off the ocean view elsewhere.

The bathing was most delightful this season. The surf was remarkably warm, maintaining a temperature during most of August ranging from 75 to 78. This was commented upon in the Atlantic City papers as something unusual.

Sundays were closed days for the sale of all kinds of spiritous liquors, and we believe the ordinance to this effect was honestly enacted. But this did not militate against the number of visitors pouring into the city. In fact we can testify to the excellent behavior of teh crowds gathering here daily and to the happiness and pleasure expressed in the countenances of all coming from north, and south, east and west, for their individual and well earned seasons of recreation and enjoyment, which they receive in their fulness in this place whose renown has gone forth into all countries.

Alexandrians know well the attractiveness of this far-famed pleasure resort, and many familiar faces were seen from the old town, whose expression of joy, with hearty handclasps added thereto revealed the fact that this was a good place for friends to meet each other.

Sixteen persons were killed and many injured when two trains on the Salonika branch of the Orient railway collided near Sariguel station.

W. D. Magli, a well known merchant of Whitemound, Wis., bought a stock of Chamberlain's medicines so as to be able to supply them to his customers. After receiving them he was himself taken sick and says that one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and diarrohea Remedy was worth more to him than the cost of his entire stock. Ostermoor

Yes, this is the Ostermoor Mattress you have heard of and seen advertised so many years. The one that's built of eight interlacing Ostermoor sheets, which after being hand-laid and sewed within the tick is ready for you to sleep on for the rest of your life and then bequeath to your heirs. There is one record of three generations sleeping on the same Ostermoor. It has been in satisfactory use for fifty-two years and that is a pretty good record for durability—isn't it?

Come in and let us show you the Ostermoor and explain why it is proof against dust, moisture, and vermin and never needs any renovation but a sun bath. Our stock will enable you to examine and test before you buy.

Dirrhoea Quickly Cured.

"I was taken with diarrhoea, and Mr. Yorks, the merchant, here, persuaded me to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After taking one dose of it I was cured. It also cured others that I gave it to," writes M. E. Gebhart, Oriole, Pa. This is not at all unusual. An ordinary attack of diarrhoea can almost invariably cured by one or two doses of this remedy. Words of Praise

For Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy

"How thankful we are to you for getting a hold of your Wonderful Remedy. My wife could not have had but a short time to live if she had not taken your Wonderful Remedy when she did. One more of those paroxysm pains she was having would have killed her without a doubt. Now she is free from all pain, free from heart trouble and free from that disturbing Neuralgia—all the result of five treatments—and the expulsion of five or six hundred Gall Stones. Now she is able to eat anything she wants and her appetite is good and before taking your medicine she had no appetite and when she ate anything she would suffer death for so doing and could not sleep at night; since taking your treatment she sleeps well all night long. T. A. Neall, Roanoke Texas."

The above letter should convince you more than anything we could say in behalf of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. Sufferers should try one dose of this Remedy—one dose should convince them that they can be restored to health. Nearly all Stomach Ailments are caused by the clogging of the intestinal tract with mucoid and catarrhal accretions allowing poisonous fluids into the Stomach and otherwise deranging the digestive system. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy painlessly removes these accretions without a surgical operation and puts an end to Colic Attacks, Gases in the Stomach and Intestines and all of the usual symptoms of Stomach, Liver and Intestinal Ailments. Ask your druggist about Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy or send to Geo. H. Mayr, Mfg. Chemist, 154 Whiting St., Chicago, Ill., for free booklet on Stomach Ailments and many grateful letters from people who have been restored.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Coupled with the announcement in Mobile, Ala., that Chicago and Denver capitalists had perfected plans for launching a $30,000,000 steel corporation to be known as the Southern Steel Company, was the statement that iron ore for the company's plants will be imported from Cuba. It was also stated that the promoters of the company had acquired 8,000 acres of land on Mobile river, on which it was proposed to erect a $5,000,000 steel plant. C. V. Mead, of Denver, it is said, will be president of the new company.

Mrs. Josie Price, wife of Oliver Price, a wealthy farmer, was beaten to death in her home near Rices Landing, Pa., yesterday, and her 12-year-old granddaughter was so badly injured it is feared she cannot recover. Rice had left home for Pittsburgh early in the day, and the crime was discovered by neighbors at noon. The authorities are looking for two tramps seen near the farm Monday night.

The thrilling maneuver of turning a somersault in the air with an aeroplane flying at rapid speed was repeated yesterday by the French aviator, Pegoud, over the aerodrome at Buc, near Versailles, France, with perfect success.

The city of Nanking, China, was captured yesterday by the Chinese government troops. The rebel forces fled into the country through the southern gate. Several of the foreign warships at Nanking were struck during the fighting Sunday. A sailor on the United States cruiser Cincinnati was wounded. The fall of Nanking will result in little change in the situation, the rebels there having been cut off and doomed to defeat for several weeks. The government contemplates going slowly in the work of suppressing the remaining rebels in the various provinces.

One hundred and twelve firemen were overcome by smoke and fumes from burning whiskey in Chicago yesterday while fighting fire on South State street, just outside the loop. Many of the firemen were hurried off to the hospitals, where it is said a number might die. The fire originated in the basement of Rothschild & Cohen's saloon, and spread to the Central Hotel, occupying the upper floor. All the guests were driven from their rooms. For hours the firemen worked in relays in fighting the basement fire, only to be overcome and rescued by their comrades. Many were revived by the aid of pulmotors, while it was necessary to take others to hospitals. Many women shoppers attracted to the scene aided in reviving the men, holding cracked ice, which had been taken from a passing ice wagon, to the men's brows. The loss will amount to $40,000.

The United States Legation at Madrid will be raised immediately to an embassy as the result of the passage by the House yesterday of the Senate bill to authorize the president to appoint an ambassador to Spain at $17,500 a year. The president has urged the change and Joseph E. Willard, former lieutenant governor of Virginia, has been mentioned as the probable first ambassador to Spain. Chairman Flood, of the Foreign Affairs Committee, told the House that Spain had indicated to his committee its desire to create a Spanish embassy in Washington. He read a letter from Secretary Bryan approving the change. "The action will be gratifying to all Spanish-speaking countries," the Secretary wrote. "Spain has, as you know, ambassadors at all the leading courts of Europe, and has a right to expect this mark of respect."

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell.

I tried most every kind of medicine but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

BLEASE ON NEW CRUSADE.

Says Reforms Are Needed in Pulpit And at Altar.

Spartansburg, S. C., Sept. 3.—Two thousand or more people of Horse Creek Valley heard Governor Cole L. Blease denounce the church in South Carolina and explain why he was not a church-goer, in a speech Monday evening which virtually opened his campaign for Ellison Durant Smith's seat in the United States Senate. He asked to be elected to the United States Senate so that he might carry into Congress his "fight for the virtue and womanhood of the South."

"They say South Carolina needs reform," said Governor Blease. "Do you know where these reforms are needed? In the pulpit and at the altar.

"I used to go to church once in a while," he continued, but I soon found out all they preached about was Blease and prohibition. I was for one and against the other, so I quit going.

DON'T OVERLOOK THIS.

A Very Careful Perusal Will Prove Its Value to Every Alexandria Reader.

The average man is a doubter, and there is little wonder that this is so. Misrepresentations make people skeptics. Now-a-days the public ask for better evidence than the testimony of strangers. Here is proof which should convince every Alexandria reader.

Miss Harriet Johnson, 207 Queen street, Alexandria, Va., says: "For two years I had a lot of trouble from my back. As long as I kept still, I got along all right, but as soon as I began to work I was bothered terribly by backache. A neighbor gave me a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Leadbeater and Sons drug store, and they cured me. I have had no symptoms of kidney complaint during the past few years. I willingly confirm my former endorsement."

The above statement must carry conviction to the mind of every reader. Don't only ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Miss Johnson had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

She Had Consumption, Was Dying; Now Well

Eckman's Alterative is being used with success in the treatment of Tuberculosis in all parts of the country. Persons who have taken it, improved, gained weight, exhausting night sweats stopped, fever diminished, and many recovered. If you are interested to know more about it, we will put you in touch with some who are now well. You can investigate and judge for yourself. Read of Mrs. Govert's recovery.

Griffith, Ind.

"Gentlemen: Thinking that perhaps a short history of the remarkable recovery of my mother-in-law (Mrs. Anna Govert) might benefit some other sufferers, I give the following testimonial: About September 20, 1908, she was taken sick with Catarrhal Pneumonia, and continually grew worse, requiring a trained nurse. Night sweats were so bad that it was necessary to change her clothing once or twice every night; her cough increased and got so bad that everybody expected that she would not live much longer. In January, when Rev. Wm. Berg, of St. Michael's Church, at Shereville, Ind., prepared for her death, he recommended that I get Eckman's Alterative, and see if it would not give her some relief. I then requested the attending physician to give his diagnosis and he informed me that she had Consumption and was beyond all medical aid. When I asked if he thought that it was useless to try the Alterative, he replied that 'No physician could help her any and I could suit myself about it.' So I immediately had Rev. Wm. Berg to send for a bottle. Practically without hope for recovery, I insisted that she try the Alterative, which she did. I am glad to say that she soon began to improve. Now, she works as hard as ever, weighs twenty pounds heavier than she ever did before she took sick, and is in good health. She frankly says she owes her life and health to Eckman's Alterative."

(Sworn Affidavit) JOS. GRIMMER.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Trouble, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.

"I am the mother of eighteen children and have the praise of doing more work than any young woman in my town," writes Mrs. C. J. Martin Boone Mill, Va. "I suffered for five years with stomach trouble and could not eat as much as a biscuit without suffering. I have taken three bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and am now a well woman and weigh 168 pounds. I can eat anything I want to and as much as I want and feel better than at any time in years. I refer to any one in Boone Mill or vicinity and they will vouch for what I say." Chamberlain's Tablets are for sale by all dealers.
